

Categories:

● Citizen of the Year

To be eligible, the person must be an Australian Citizen.

● Young Citizen of the Year

To be eligible, the person must be an Australian Citizen under 30 years of age on January 26, 2018.

● Community Event of the Year

This is presented to the person/group who has staged the most outstanding community event during the past year.

Procedure:

Each local Council in South Australia seeks nominations in their local Council area, with the award recipients typically announced at the Council's Australia Day celebrations. Councils can forward the details of their Award recipients to the Australia Day Council of SA to go in the running for the State Awards, presented by the Governor of South Australia.

Do you know someone who makes your community a better place?

The Citizen of the Year Awards are proudly presented by the Australia Day Council of South Australia, sponsored by Channel 9.

The Citizen of the Year Awards are administered by local Councils across SA.

The Awards reward and recognise individuals and organisations that have made a noteworthy contribution during the current year, and/or given outstanding service over a number of years, to a local community over and above normal employment duties.

Outstanding contribution and community service includes areas such as education, health, fundraising, charitable and voluntary services, business, sport, arts, the environment, or any other area that contributes to the advancement and well-being of a community.

Nominate someone who makes a real difference in your community and give them the opportunity to be rewarded and recognised for their important contribution.

to nominate online and for more information on the awards, including past winners.

Or for local Yorke Peninsula Council nominations please complete the SF072 Nomination Form available on the Council website www.yorke.sa.gov.au
