Cr Jeffrey Cook

Mayor Darren Braund offered a tribute to Cr Jeff Cook who passed away earlier today, Wednesday 13 May 2020.

Today we were saddened by the news of the passing of Cr Jeff Cook. Jeff had made an outstanding contribution as a councillor. A few highlights:

37 years this May (starting in 1983 in the DC of Minlaton; former Chairperson of the District Council of Minlaton. Jeff led the Council through the amalgamation process and has been with the Yorke Peninsula Council since 1997.

Jeff served on the Dog and Cat Management Board 1998-2011 and many years on the Development Assessment Panel (now known as CAP) – with a period as Chairperson. He was a member of the Wakefield Regional Council Development Assessment Panel, a member of the Finance Committee, Chairman of the Development and Community Services, a member of the LGA Executive 1994-1997 (proxy from 1997-2006), a member of the CFS Board 2000-2003 and a member of the Development Assessment Commission 2002-2003.

Jess was also a farmer, singer and poet (with up until recently segments in to the US radio stations).

Jeff was proud of his achievements and remained committed to his community to the end. He was a colleague and friend to us and many in the community. He will be missed by many and our thoughts and prayers are with his family.

The CEO explained the methodology utilised by the state government to raise the levy which Council has no control over.

Cr Adam Meyer requested that the CEO broadcast the issue and promote that it is entirely out of Council's hands and extremely disappointing given the Yorke Peninsula Council has worked extremely hard in minimising any increases at all for our community.
