Notes

This form should be completed by a business or organisation (i.e. a body corporate) which is either:

1. A Sole Owner

A body corporate sole owner is an individual business or organisation that owns any type of rateable property in the Council area.

2. A Sole Occupier

A body corporate sole occupier is an individual business or organisation that occupies any type of rateable property in the Council area as a tenant.

Designated Person

This application must include a designated person to be enrolled on the voters roll for an area or ward who must be:

- A natural person who is 18 years or above and who is an officer of the body corporate authorised to act on behalf of the body corporate for the purposes of voting.
 - o An officer of a body corporate is a director, manager, secretary, public officer or other person involved in the management of the body corporate.

Enrolment can only be granted in respect to the rateable property address nominated on the front of this form. Where applicants are seeking enrolment for additional properties (located in different wards in the Council area) a separate application form must be completed in respect to each property.

An elector can only vote once for an Area election (i.e. for a Mayor or Area Councillors) and once in any Ward election (i.e. for Ward Councillors). A designated person may only vote in one capacity at an election.
